4.1 Grievance Procedure

4.1.1 Definition: For the purpose of this section, a grievance shall mean a claimed violation, misinterpretation or inequitable application of the provisions of this collective bargaining agreement or the Authority's personnel policies and/or practices.

4.1.2 Informal Grievance: The aggrieved employee(s) may present a grievance, in writing, to the employee's immediate Supervisor. Within seven calendar days after receiving the grievance, the Supervisor shall issue a written response to the grievance, which shall be given to the employee and the Unit President.

4.1.3 Step One - Formal Grievance: The Union may file a formal complaint on behalf of an aggrieved employee(s). The grievance shall specify the nature of the grievance, including the section of the collective bargaining agreement, or personnel policy and/or practice that was allegedly violated.

The grievance must be submitted, in writing, to the Executive Director within thirty calendar days from the occurrence, or when the Union should have had knowledge of the occurrence.

Within ten calendar days after receiving the grievance, the Executive Director shall meet with the aggrieved employee(s) and the designated Union representative. Within ten calendar days after the meeting, the Executive Director shall issue a written response to the grievance, which shall be given to the Unit President.

4.1.4 Step Two - Arbitration: If the Union is not satisfied with the response to the grievance at Step One, the Union may submit the matter to arbitration by providing the Authority with a notice of intent to arbitrate. The notice of intent must be submitted, in writing, within fourteen calendar days from receiving the Step One response or when the Step One response should have been received.

Thereafter, the Union shall file a demand for arbitration with PERB or other mutually agreed upon arbitration services in accordance with its rules and regulations.

4.1.5 Arbitrator's Decision: All decisions rendered in the arbitration shall be advisory. No arbitrator functioning under these procedures shall have any power to amend, modify or delete any provisions of this collective bargaining agreement.

4.1.6 Costs: The Authority and the Union shall each pay one-half of the arbitrator's fees and appropriate processing fees.

4.2 Probationary Employee

4.2.1 Length of Probation: When an employee is appointed to a position in the competitive or noncompetitive class, the employee shall serve a probationary period, as defined by Civil Service, for a period of 8 to 26 weeks or 8 to 52 weeks, whichever is applicable, from the date of appointment. A probationary period may be extended for up to an additional twenty-six weeks at the Authority's discretion, with notice to the Union.

4.2.2 Competitive Classifications: A new employee in a competitive Civil Service classification who is in probationary status, (or who has been appointed to a position on a provisional, temporary, contingent, seasonal, emergency or training basis), shall not be entitled to appeal any disciplinary action taken against the employee, nor shall the Union have the right to appeal such action on the employee's behalf. An employee in a competitive Civil Service classification who has completed the probationary period shall be entitled to appeal any disciplinary action in accordance with Section 4.3, below.

4.2.3 Noncompetitive Classifications: A new employee in a noncompetitive Civil Service classification who is in probationary status, (or who has been appointed to a position on a temporary, contingent, seasonal, emergency or training basis), shall not be entitled to appeal any disciplinary action taken against the employee, nor shall the Union have the right to appeal such action on the employee's behalf. An employee in a noncompetitive civil service classification who has completed the probationary period shall be entitled to appeal any disciplinary action in accordance with Section 4.3, below.

4.3 Disciplinary Procedure

If representation is requested and is not available, the Authority shall not proceed with questioning, but may propose disciplinary action based on the information the Authority already has. When representation is available, the employee shall be entitled to meet, in private, with the Union representative for a reasonable period before any questioning begins.

The Authority shall provide the Union with the general subject matter of the questioning and identify the reason for which discipline may be imposed. During questioning, the employee may be advised by the Union representative and, following questioning, allowed to offer relevant information.

4.3.2 Discipline for Just Cause: The Authority shall not subject an employee who has completed the probationary period, as defined in Section 4.2, above, to any disciplinary action or penalty except for just cause. This provision shall not apply to counseling memos issued by the Authority.

4.3.3 Notice of Discipline: The Authority shall provide an employee who is subject to disciplinary action with a written Notice of Discipline. Said notice shall contain all charges and specifications, including a detailed description of the alleged acts or conduct, an explanation of the Authority's evidence, and the proposed discipline. A copy of the notice shall be sent simultaneously to the Unit President. Enclosed with the Notice of Discipline, the Authority shall provide an employee who is subject to disciplinary action with a copy of these procedures (Section 4.3).

4.3.4 Disciplinary Hearing: If the Union (or the employee) disagrees with the proposed disciplinary action or penalty, the Union (or the employee) may submit the matter to the Executive Director. Such grievance must be submitted, in writing, within seven calendar days from receipt of the Notice of Discipline.

Within seven calendar days after receiving the grievance, the Executive Director shall meet with the employee and, if the employee requests, the designated Union representative. The meeting shall provide the employee and the Union representative with an opportunity to respond to all charges and specifications.

Within seven calendar days after the meeting, the Executive Director shall issue a written response to the grievance, which shall be sent to the employee. A copy of the response shall be sent simultaneously to the Union representative.

4.3.5 Appeal of Disciplinary Action: If the Union (or the employee) is not satisfied with the response of the Executive Director, the Union (or the employee) may submit the matter to arbitration by providing the Authority with a notice of intent to arbitrate. Such notice must be submitted, in writing, within fourteen calendar days of receiving the response from the Executive Director, or when the response should have been received.

Thereafter, the Union shall file a demand for arbitration with PERB or other mutually agreed upon arbitration services in accordance with its rules and regulations.

4.3.6 Arbitrators Decision: All decisions rendered in such arbitration shall be final and binding upon both parties.

4.3.7 Costs: The Authority and the Union shall each pay one-half of the arbitrator's fees and appropriate processing fees (or the Authority and the employee, if it is the employee who proceeds to arbitration on the employee's own).

4.3.8 Method of Service: All disciplinary and grievance documents, including notice of discipline, grievance, responses, and notice of intent to arbitrate, shall be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested.

4.3.9 Civil Service Rights: The procedure set forth above shall serve as the only method of resolving challenges to disciplinary action, hence, wholly replacing the statutory provisions set forth in Sections 75 and 76 of New York State Civil Service Law.

Such proposed adjustments must be recommended by the Executive Director and approved by the Board. Such adjustments may be based upon, for example, the performance of increased duties due to consolidation or restructuring of positions within the bargaining unit, or for the performance of special additional projects or tasks as deemed appropriate by the Executive Director.
